THE

FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

HOLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL OF RELIGION

VOLUME XLIX.

PHILADELPHIA:

PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE.

1876.

35491

M.G.F.I.I
F 91.5
v.49

INDEX.

Absurdity. A practical, 43.
Academy of Natural Sciences. Notice of the new building of the, 326.
Admiralty Islands. Notice of the first exploration of, 11.
Adulteration of food, &c. Instances of, 197.
Aerolites. Notice of remarkable, 342.
Afflictions. The benefit of, 111. 191. 308. 367.
On the love of Christ under, 118.
Anecdote illustrating the benefit of, 125.
Afraid to die? Incident connected with Sir John Franklin's expedition, 350.
Africa. Notice of Lieut. Cameron's late explorations in, 212. 262.
Notice of H. M. Stanley's late explorations in, 269.
Notice of a recent exploration of Lake Nyassa, 402.
Agriculture. The use of Paris green against the Colorado beetle, not hurtful to the soil nor vegetation, 38.
Methods of economy in feeding stock, 181.
On improved breeds of poultry, 191.
On Portuguese, 198. 206.
On Dutch, 301.
Notice of Jersey cattle, 323.
Agricultural Exhibitions. Animadversions on the present method of conducting, 413.
Alcohol. On the physiological action of, 37. 41. 52. 60.
Alexander Edward. Remarks of, on the many snares of our soul's enemy, 98.
Allen William. Remark of, on the silent influence of one upon another, 20.
Anecdote of La Fontaine, 14.
Samuel Brown, 50.
the giving deacon, 82.
a penitent thief, 86.
the Duke of Wellington, 231.
Leigh Richmond, 252.
a young man of principle, 310.
Judge M'Kean, 362. of a helpful wife, 363.
of Tedyuscung, 390.
of Philip Henry, 399.
Animals. On evidences of sympathy in, 349.
Rapidity of growth of certain, when transported to other countries, 397.
Angola and the river Congo. Notes in reference to, 241. 249. 257. 266. 276. 282. 300. 307.
Apes. Remarks on, as connected with the "evolution" theory, 141.
Appeal for the new year. An, 171.
Appeal by Friends for the due observance of the First day of the week, 372.
Ash Edward. Remarks on the attack by, on George Fox and the original doctrines of the Society, 268.
Asia Minor. Account of the late famine in, 3.
Association. On the evil influence of bad, 124.
Atmospheric dust. Observations on, 373.
Aurora. Strange discoveries respecting the, 204. 209. 217.
Australia. Account of a recent exploration of, 83. 91. 100.

Barclay's Apology. Remarks on different editions of, 167.
Extracts from, on the "assurance of faith," and comments, 175.
Barclay John. Remarks on obedience in apparently small things, 91.
Testimony of, to a brighter day in the Society of Friends, 114.
Remarks of, on assuming a plain dress, 211.
A word of caution to Friends by, 299.
Observations of, on the distinguishing testimonies of Friends, 398.
Barker Joseph, a repenting infidel. The death of, 191.
Battey Thomas C. Extracts from a Journal kept by, among the Western Indians [continued from vol. xlviii. p. 411], 2. 9. 18. 25. 34. 42. 49. 62. 65. 75. 81. 89. 98. 105. 115. 122. 130. 137. 146. 154. 162. 170. 177. 185. 194. 203. 212. 218.
Bay of Rio de Janeiro. Description of the appearance of, 116.
Be hopeful, 391.
"Bearing the cross in plainness of dress." Essay entitled, 261. 265.
"Begging bread." Anecdote of a widow providentially relieved, 406.
Bessemer Henry. Brief account of the life and inventions of, 334.
Bevan, Joseph Gurney, Extract on the character of, 58.
Beware of by-paths, 107.
Bible Association of Friends of America. Circular of the, 77.
Information concerning the objects of, 149.
Binney Horace. Notice of the life and character of, 5.
Book notices, &c. "Ritualism Dethroned," by Wm. B. Orvis, 95.
The Christian Reformer and non-Ritualist, 168.
Chambers' Encyclopedia, vol. iv. 207.
Biographical Sketch of William Penn, 224.
Brief Biographies of some members of the Society of Friends, &c., by Joseph Walton, 279.
Penington's Letters, stereotype edition, 304.
Modern Quakerism examined and contrasted with that of the ancient type. By Walter Edgerton, 309.
Peace Principles exemplified in the early history of Pennsylvania, by S. M. Janney, 327.
Friends' books in foreign languages, for sale at 304 Arch St., 375.
Bradley Mary, a blind mute. Account of the education of, 57. 67. 73.
Bravery. Anecdote of, in rescuing human life, 4.
Brazil. The character of the government and Emperor of, 411.
Bread." "How long it takes to make a slice of, 71.
Brown Frances. Brief account of the literary character of, 306.
Buffalo robes. Account of the process of preparing, 75.
Burrough Edward. On the preaching of, 364.
Business. Remarks on the danger to the soul of becoming engrossed with, 58.
Anecdote of overcoming evil with good in, 58.
Mottoes of a Friend in reference to, and comments, 205.
Remarks of Wm. Grover on a religious care in, 263.

California. Sketches of scenery in, by a recent visitor, 118. 133. 139. 148. 166.
Account of the Chinese in, 169. 180.
Calvin John. Notice of the political career of, 121.
Capper Mary. Memoranda of, and comments [continued from vol. xlviii. p. 411], 1. 11. 19.
Remarks on the character of, 12.
Extracts from, 43.
Centennial Exhibition. Statistics of the space covered by the buildings for, 13.
The sale of intoxicating drinks to be allowed at the, 255.
Resolution of the Women's International Temperance Union in reference to the above, 367.
Extract from a Mennonite paper adverse to the, and comments, 287.
Dissuasive to a participation in the, by Friends, 319.
Serious considerations respecting the, 375.
Notice of the conclusion to close the, on First days, 384.
Chaldean account of the creation and deluge. Notice of the, 189.
Cheerfulness. On the duty of, 333.
Cheerful view of things. A, 336.
Children. On the danger of injury to, by excessive mental strain, 52.
Mothers advised to endeavor to adorn their, with meekness and virtue, 76.
of Friends at Bristol. Remarks on the faithfulness of, under persecution, 149.
On entering into sympathy with, 268.
Chinese people. Pauperism of the, 300.
Chinese in California. Account of the, 169. 180.
Christian earnestness. Remarks on, 18.
Christian gentleness. Remarks on, 84.
Christian love. Remarks on, 306.
Church. Services in the, to be rightly performed only under a measure of the Lord's spirit, 106.
A description of the true, and the ministers of it, 242.
Observations of R. Barclay on what constitutes the true, 252.
Cinchona in India. On the cultivation of the, 373.
Coal mine. Anecdote of bravery in a, 4.
Coal oil lamps. Reasons for the explosion of, 343.
Colorado. Ancient ruins in S. Western, 397.
Colored people of the Southern States. Remarks on the condition of, 236. 244. 251. 260.
Conformity to the world. On, 388.
Conversation. On guarding against light and frivolous, 134.
Advice of Thomas à Kempis in reference to, 158.
Remarks on the benefits of seeking the, of religious persons, 341.
Conversion. Remarks on "instantaneous," 212. 286. 331. 349.
Copal. On the collection of in S. Africa, 282.
Cross of Christ. Exhortation of Wm. Penn to obey the, 350.
Culture a means not an end, 84.

Death. On the varying effects of the approach of, 184.
Deaths.—Nathan H. Armstrong, 216; Jehu Allmon, 256; Christopher Allen, 304; Martha Ann Bates, 8; Benjamin Bundy, 72; Martin Brantingham, 128; Mary S. Barber, 256; William Blackburn, 280; Rachel Borton, 360; Mary M. Chase, 168; Alfred Cope, 176; Lindsey Cobbs, 184; Elizabeth M. Cope, 272; Stacy Cooke, 304; Miller Chace, 312; Rebecca B. Cope, 328; Susanna Chambers, 384; James Carr, 416; Anna B. DeCou, 56; Thomas Doan, 296; Esther Doan, 408; George B. Deacon, 310; David Evans, 144; Mary Emmons, 296; Thomas Evens, 328; Achsah Frame, 120; Mary Ann Fawcett, 310; Hetty E. Guindon, 136; Abiel Gardner, 152; John Hall, 24; Hiram Haight, 24; Ann Hardacre, 80; Mary E. Haines, 104; Martha Heacock, 264; Ann P. Harry, 360; Cynthia Heald, 368; Elizabeth Howell, 408; Jennett Johnson, 264; Lemuel Jones, 24; Isaac Jones, 128; Henry E. Jones, 128; Sarah H. Jones, 400; William B. Kaighn, 280; Martha B. Lovett, 24; Sarah Llewelyn, 124; Mary C. Loyd, 304; Phebe Maddock, 16; Anna S. Moore, 208; Martha T. Martin, 296; Samuel R. Matlack, 336; Phebe Jane Moore, 360; James W. McGrew, 400; Elizabeth C. North, 128; Sally Ann Neal, 128; Hannah P. Newbold, 216; Margaret W. Pyle, 328; Nathan Roberts, 16; Abram P. Rudolph, 304; Edward Taylor Randolph, 408; Nathaniel N. Stokes, 88; Philadelphia Sharpless, 88; Rachel A. Stockton, 104; Elam Stevens, 120; Catharine M. Searing, 168; Aaron Sharpless, 208; Anne K. Shoemaker, 288; Thomas F. Scattergood, 320. 328; Samuel Shreeve, 328; Ann Shreeve, 328; George Spencer, 360; Mark M. Sheppard, 368; Joseph Satterthwaite, Sr., 384; Ruthanna Trimble, 296; Rebecca Trimble, 296; Jotham Townsend, 400; Melissa Vestal, 408; Jeremiah Willets, 8; Elizabeth Woodward, 48; Isaac M. Webster, 72; Martha Wright, 160; Ann Warrington, 168; Richard Wright, 216; Thomas Wistar, 240; William H. Walter, 264; Louisa Warner, 272; Phebe Wickersham, 288; Thomas B. Woolman, 376; Deborah M. Williamson, 408; Howard Yarnall, 200.
Debt. On running into, 348.
Deep sea dredgings. Interesting results of, 369.
Discoveries. Valuable, resulting from copying nature, 92.
Dog. A watchful, 341.
Dream. A remarkable, 151.
The character of false zeal, portrayed in a, 163.
Dress. Remarks on the testimony of Friends to plainness of, 20.
On the effect of the prevailing fashionable, on the health of women, 126.

Dress. Expostulation with the young people in reference to plainness of, 149.
and language. Testimony of Benjamin Bishop to the preserving effects of faithfulness to the testimonies of Friends respecting, 182.
Advice of George Fox and others in reference to, 202.
Testimony of one not a Friend in relation to plainness of, 210.
Remarks of John Barclay upon changing to a plain, 211.
and language. Plainness of, a Divine requisition, 218.
On bearing the cross in plainness of, 261. 265.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting upon, 1831, 276.
Extracts from early Epistles of London Yearly Meeting upon, 277.
The slackness of parents in reference to, a cause of injury to the church, 327.
Remarks of Samuel Neale in reference to nonconformity by Friends to plainness of, 362.
"Drivers." Anecdote entitled "The three," 339.
Dutch farming. On, 301.

Earth. The rotation of the, very slowly diminishing, 273. 281. 291.
Earthquakes. The lifting effects of, 124.
Editorial.—Remarks on Queries to be proposed to ministers and elders, now under consideration in New York Yearly Meeting, 6. 14; Reply to some strictures of "The British Friend," 23; Considerations on the frequency of malfeasance in office in the community, 30; Remarks on a communication respecting the spirit of criticism, 39; Remarks in reference to Friends of Canada Yearly Meeting, 39; On the introduction of Scripture reading, &c., into the meetings of Friends, 47; On the effects which should be produced on our minds by the death of relatives or friends, 55; Notice of an appeal for funds by the Friends' Freedmen's Association, 55; Notice of the proceedings of Indiana Yearly Meeting, 71. 87; Remarks on the state of the Society of Friends, 78; Remarks on a proposed conference to consider the condition of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 86; Account of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 95; Notice of "Ritualism Dethroned," 95; On architectural and other ornament in places of worship, 103; Notice of a correction by I. Sharp, 103; Considerations on the widespread evidences in the community of the demoralizing effects of war, 111; Extract from George Fox on the power of the church to discern the true gospel from the false, and comments, 119; Remarks on a suggestion in reference to re-open correspondence with New England Yearly Meeting, 127; Remarks on a charge brought against Friends of Philadelphia of altering the Journal of George Fox, 128. 158; On the character and the results of the new doctrines among Friends, 135; The doctrines of the early Friends necessarily to be followed by faithful members, 143; On worship, 151; Appeal on behalf of the poor, 151; Remarks on different editions of Barclay's Apology, 167; Correction of a statement in reference to the Pemberton papers, 168; Notice of "The Christian Reformer and Non-Ritualist," 168; On the doctrine of the "assurance of faith," as accepted by Friends, 175; The necessity of humility in professedly religious services, 199; Notice of the present condition of the freedmen, and appeal on their behalf, 207; Notice of Chambers' Encyclopedia, vol. iv., 207; On the faith which is of man and the faith which is of God, 215; Encouragement to individual faithfulness, 223; Notice of the opening of Friends' Boarding School, Barnesville, Ohio, 223. 239; Notice of a "Biographical Sketch of William Penn," 224; Observations on carrying out the rules of the discipline in the spirit in which they were originally framed, 231; Remarks on the depressed condition of business, 239; Observations on irregular meetings professedly religious, 247; Encouragement to the humble and sincere-hearted, 255; Animadversions on singing as a part of worship, 278; Notice of "Brief Biographies," &c., 279; Account of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 294; Comments on remarks made in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 1876, 303; Notice of the republication of the "Letters of Isaac Penington," 304; Remarks on the superficial character of late religious "revivals," 311; On closing the Centennial Exhibition upon the First day of the week, 311; Remarks on doctrines inculcated in certain hymns, 319; On the proposed transfer of the care of the Indians to the War Department of the United States, 327; Notice of "Peace Principles as exemplified in the early history of Pennsylvania," 327; Remarks on comments on the course of this Journal, 344; Remarks on the approach of warm weather, 351; On the nature and operation of true faith, 351; Notice of the proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 358; On murmuring at the trials of the day, 367; Notice of the adoption by New York Yearly Meeting of Queries to be answered by members of Select Meetings, 367; Notice in reference to visiting Westtown Boarding School on First-day, 368; Remarks on the Centennial Exhibition, 375; Notice of Friends' books in foreign languages, 375; Notice respecting the "Appeal for the due observance of the First-day of the week," 376; Appeal on behalf of the Sioux Indians in the present hostilities, 382; Notice of the action of the Centennial Commissioners in regard to closing the exhibition on First-day, 384; Remarks on the changes proposed in the meetings of Ministers and Elders in London Yearly Meeting, 391; Remarks on recent attacks upon Philadelphia Yearly Meeting on account of its efforts to maintain the testimony of Friends to plainness of dress, 407; Remarks on concluding the forty-ninth volume, 415.
Edmundson William. A prophetic warning by, and its fulfilment, 289. 297.
Education of women. Remark of H. More on, 55. of blind mutes. Account of, 57. 67. 73.
Egypt. The horrors of war observed in, 39.
Elder. Testimony concerning a worthy, 300.
Elders. Remarks on the duties of, in the church, 399.
Elephants. The growing scarcity of wild, in India, 125.
Elliott John, of London. Brief notice of the religious character of, 5.
Emlen Sarah. Remark of, on plainness of dress, &c., 307.
Employment essential to health, 306.
England. Improvidence of colliers in, ascribed to the former existence of slavery in, 339.
Ephesus. Account of a visit to the ruins of, 182.
Epistle of John Woolman to Friends. Extracts from, 183. 186. 195.
London Yearly Meeting of 1792, to the Quarterly Meetings, 221.
"Eternal happiness not a cheap thing," 29.
Eternity. Reflections on, 19.
Euplectella or siliceous sponge. On the collection of the, 253.
Evans Cadwallader. Testimony concerning, 404.
Evans Jonathan. Testimony to the character of, 66.
Evans Thomas. Extract from, on the character and doctrines of the early Friends, 198.
Evans William. Remarks of, on the attendance by Friends of the meetings of other professors, 396. 410.
"Evolution" theory. Remarks on apes in connection with the, 141.
Objections to the, 350.
Example. On the powerful effects of good, 228.
"Eye of a needle." Illustration of the meaning of the expression, 156.

Fairs and their failings. Extract entitled, 413.
Faith. On the doctrine of the assurance of, as held by Friends, 175.
which is of man, and the faith which is of God. On the distinction between the, 215.
Remarks on true, 282.
On the nature and operation of true, 351.
Famine in Asia Minor. Account of the late, 3.
Faraday." A review of the "Life and Letters of, 54. 59.
Fellowship. On true spiritual, 215.
Files. On the method of cutting, 108.
Fiji. The manufacture of cloth by the natives of, 172.
Certain surgical instruments valued by the natives of, 173.
On kava-drinking in, 179.
Account of a hurricane in, 187.
First day of the week. An appeal for the due observance of the, 372.
Admiration of intelligent foreigners for the observance of, in America, 391.
Fish culture in the United States. Account of the progress of, 132.
Abundance of, on the coast of Angola, 290.
Fishing for porgies on the coast of Maine. Account of, 68.
"Following the shepherd." Incident entitled, 284.
"Foolscap" paper. Origin of the term, 271.
Foot-lamp. A, 230.
Forests. On the decrease of, in Europe, 94.
Decrease of the size of European rivers attributed to the destruction of, 397.
Fothergill Samuel. Extracts from, 204. 205. 206. 212. 231. 268. 308. 358. 391.
Fox George. Short sketch and incidents of the life 119, 122. 133. 170. 179. 202. 275. 383.
Extract from, on the power of judgment in t church, and comments, 119.
Refutation of charges in reference to alteratio in the Journal of, 158.
Extracts from, 182.
Advice of, in reference to plainness of appare 202.
Testimony of, to the universality of the Light Christ, 264.
Sufferings of, on account of his refusal to figl 283.
Remarks of, on the necessity of repentance, 32
Freedmen. On the present condition of the, und care of the Association of Friends for the reli of, 207.
Appeal on behalf of the, 357.
France. Account of the destruction caused by recer floods in, 68.
The conscription in, 389.
Fretful disposition. Advice against indulging in, 50
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 2 35. 106. 110. 165. 229. 235. 258. 270. 282. 29 325. 347. 357. 373.
On the state of the Society of, 78. 86. 135. 16 317. 318. 319.
Remarks of John Griffith upon, as a people, 3
The testimonies of, to plainness of speech, b havior, and apparel, a sacred trust, 26.
Remarks of Mary Capper upon joining the S ciety of, 12.
Notice of the effect upon, in America of t trials of the Revolutionary war, 26.
Observations of H. Hull on the testimony o to plainness of dress, 20.
Remarks on a false ministry among, 29. 33. 13
Remarks on the preservation of, during the r bellion in Ireland, 20.
The plain language of, a preservative of yout from evil company, 26.
Remarks of Jonathan Hutchinson against chang ing the character of the meetings for worshi of, 26.
Advice not to appoint unfaithful members, t the exercise of the discipline among, 44.
On the necessity of the maintenance by, of thei testimony to true worship, 47.
Remarks of Jonathan Hutchinson on the exce lence of the religion professed by, 70.
Remarks on a delusive spirit among, 76.
On the early settlement of Pennsylvania by, 7 84. 93.
The testimony of, to silent worship, 99. 285. 31
The way of help for the Society of, from its pre sent bondage, 100. 106. 173.
Testimonies of Ann Jones and others to brighter day for the Society of, 114.
Short Sketches of some of the early, 119. 12 133. 170. 179. 188. 196. 202. 211. 218. 22 242. 263. 275. 283. 308.
Remarks on the character of the early, by Thoma Evans, 198.
Notice of the persecution of, in New England, 12
The doctrines and example of the early, neces sarily to be followed by faithful members, 14
The light of Christ in the heart, a fundamenta doctrine of, 147. 237. 254. 268.
The faithfulness of the children of, at Bristol, i 1681–2, and comments, 149.
On the origin of the testimony of, to the use o thou and thee, 179. 188.
The testimony of, to the outward and inwar appearance of Christ, 204. 254.
Observations of a looker-on, on singing by pr fessed, 244.
Warning to, by Ambrose Rigge, on the pursu of riches, 221.
Remarks on the danger to, of resting in the do trine of the outward sacrifice of our Saviou without experiencing His inward work, 237.
The doctrine of, relating to the ministry, 263.
Remarks on bearing the cross by, in plainne of dress, 261. 265.
Advice to, by London Yearly Meeting in forme days, 276. 277.
On singing by, as a part of worship, 278.
Objections of, to sports, plays, &c., 292.
A voice of entreaty and message of love to a young, 293.
A word of caution to, from England, 399.
Notices of innovation upon the doctrine of, an its fruits in the West, 309. 314. 321. 331. 33 345. 389.

Friends. The views of, on the observance of the First day of the week, 311.
Testimony of one of the early, of the Divine displeasure for singing psalms, 339.
Remarks on so called "devotional" meetings among, 349.
Faithfulness of the early, in attending religious meetings through physical exposure, 349.
Notice of a prophecy concerning, 358.
Animadversions on the attending of meetings of other professors by, 396. 410.
Apprehensions of S. Grellet of the effects of a forward self-willed ministry among, and comments, 398.
Observations of John Barclay on the origin of the distinguishing testimonies of, 398.
"The Friend." Remarks on the contents of No. 21, 175.
Frivolous reading. The rapid character of the injurious effects of, 46.

Gas-wells. On the utilization of, in making iron at Pittsburg, 127.
Geneva. Letter from, giving a sketch of its history, 113. 121.
Gerhardt Paul. Trust of, in the Lord rewarded, 203.
Geysers and hot springs of California. Visit to, 148.
"Giving deacon." Anecdote of the, 52.
Glass. On the properties of Bastie's hardened, 183.
Goats in Scotland. Notes on wild, 36.
Goat's milk. Notice of the poisoning by, in Italy, 172.
Gospel. The soul's rest is in the, 250.
Grace of God exalted as man's only teacher. The, 150. 153. 163.
Great Britain. Remarks of J. W. Forney on the free trade policy of, 403.
Great Eastern burdened with mussels, 204.
Greek fire. The ceremony of the, at Jerusalem, 235.
Grellet Stephen. Remarks of, on the ministry, 124.
Account of the visit by, to the Pope in 1819, 226.
Griffith John. Extracts from the Journal of, and comments, 3. 10. 17. 28. 33.
Grover William. Remarks of, on maintaining a religious exercise in temporal concerns, 263.
Grubb Sarah [L.] Advice by, against giving way to a fretful disposition, 50.
On the responsibility of a gospel minister, 50.
Grubb Sarah [R.] Extracts from, 397. 399. 403. 406. 413.
Gulf Stream. Is the, a myth, 305. 313. 322.

Haarlem Lake. Notes of a visit to the former bed of, 329.
Hague Joseph, a blind mute. Account of the education of, 57. 67. 73.
Halifax. Incidents connected with the establishment of a people's park in, 356.
Hammerfest. Description of a visit to 233. 243.
Hands John. Testimony concerning, and comments, 339.
Happy man. The, 22.
home. A, 86.
Health of cities and the country compared, 10.
Report on the state of knowledge respecting yellow fever, 12.
A solution of ammonia a preventive of mercury poisoning, 20.
On the physiological influence of alcohol, 37. 41. 52. 60.
On the care of conversation in the sick room, 110.
On the effect of the prevailing fashions of women on the, 126.
The danger to, from sleep potions, 268.
The operations of plastic surgery, 285.
Influence of vegetation on, 333.
Statistics in reference to the, of Philadelphia, 338.
Influence of prevailing winds upon the, of cities, 373.
On the method of treating sunstroke, 387.
Heart. On a change of, 43.
Hippopotamus hunters. Account of, 380.
"His word as good as his bond." Anecdote entitled, 50.
Holland. On farming in, 301.
Drainage operations in, 329.
Holy Scriptures. A text of the, instrumental in changing the character of a robber, 5.
Notice of the oldest known bound volume of the Old Testament, 21.
Remark of I. Penington on expounding the, in a wrong spirit, 71.
called by Sir Isaac Newton the most sublime philosophy, 84.
Holy Scriptures. On a false rest obtained to the soul by applying the promises from the letter of the, 116.
Illustrations of passages in the, from Oriental customs, 227. 230.
Holy Spirit. Remarks on the gentle warnings of the, on the heart, 11.
The manifestations of the, a light to our feet, 123.
Hooton Elizabeth. Account of the life and gospel labors of, 234.
Horse Hair. Notes on the manufacture of, 35.
How the toad was cared for. Anecdote of the Duke of Wellington entitled, 231.
Huguenots. Instance of magnanimity in the war with the, 181.
Humility. The safety and blessedness of, 130.
On, 301.
Hurricane in Fiji. Account of a, 187.
Hutchinson Jonathan. Remarks of on the excellence of religion as professed by Friends, and the necessity of the maintenance of what are called its minor testimonies, 70.

"I know where he is going." Anecdote entitled, 371.
"I never saw till I was blind," 364.
Iceland. Observations of an American in, 310. 315. 324. 330.
Imprisoned bird." Essay entitled "The, 357.
Incident. A simple, and comments, 37.
India. On free masonry among certain sects in, 157.
Statistics of natives of, professing Christianity, 315.
On the cultivation of the cinchona in, 373.
India-rubber. On the collection of, in Africa, 277.
On the collection of in S. America, 343.
Indians. Experiences of a school teacher with [continued from vol. xlviii. p. 411] 2. 9. 18. 25. 34. 42. 49. 62. 65. 75. 81. 89. 98. 105. 115. 122. 130. 137. 146. 154. 162. 170. 177. 185. 194. 203. 212. 218.
Difficulty experienced in obtaining release of captives by, 25. 42.
Illustration of the good effect of kind treatment towards, 49.
Remarks on the peaceable behavior of the, towards the settlers of New Jersey, 70.
Account of the difficulty with the Kiowa, respecting Satanta and Big Tree, 81.
Account of the peaceable treatment of, by Wm. Penn, and its results, 85. 93.
Anecdotes of, 218.
Habits of observation of trailers among the, 286.
Notice of the proceedings of the Association of Friends in charge of Western, 309.
Notice of a protest of, against a proposed transfer of the care of, to the U. S. war department, 327.
Animadversions on the proposed transfer of the care of, to the military, 332.
Notice of the friendly relations of the settlers of New Jersey with the, 373. 377. 390. 399.
Appeal on behalf of the Sioux, in the present hostilities, 382.
Remarks on the injustice of the U. S. Government in its recent course with the Sioux, 413.
Individual faithfulness. Encouragement to, 223.
Infidel. The death of Joseph Barker, a repentant, 191.
The testimony of an, not to be admitted in a court of justice, 199.
Infidelity. Remarks on the "evolution" theory as connected with modern, 350.
Ink. On the history and quality of, 109.
Inquisition. On the secrets of the, 343.
Intemperance. Account of Thomas Shilitoe's labors against, in Dublin, 381. 385. 393. 401.
Intoxicating drinks. A sailor's refusal to use, 244.
Invisible painter. The, 336.
Insect. A valuable invention devised by copying from an, 92.
Insects excommunicated, 108.
Iron. The utilization of gas-wells in the manufacture of, at Pittsburg, 127.
Isle of Man. Brief notice of, 4.
Ivory. On the collection of, in South Africa, 277.

Jacob's well. Account of a visit to, 361.
Jacob Richard. Brief account of, 291.
Jaffray Alexander. Joy of, on account of his sufferings for his testimony to Christ's inward appearance, 127.
Japan. Notice of the rapid changes in civilization going on in, 100.
Jews. Statistics of the number of, in various countries, 94.
Jelly from old boots, 393.
Jersey. Notes on the island of, 323.
Johnson Andrew. How, learned to read, 196.
Jones Ann, of England. Testimony of, to a brighter day in the Society of Friends, 114.
Justification. Remarks of William Penn on, 45.
Justification and sanctification. Account by Richard Claridge of a conference upon, 230.
Remarks on, in sermons preached by Friends, in the 17th century, 245.

Kangaroo vine of Australia. Notice of the, 260.
Keith George. Remarks on the apostacy of, 167.
Kempis Thomas à. Extracts from, 396.
Kendall John. Brief account of, 131.
Kid gloves. On the manufacture of, 28.
Kidnapping in Polynesia. Account of, 371. 379. 386. 394.
Kite Thomas. Remarks on the death of, 356.

Lake Tahoe. Account of a visit to, 166.
Language. On the origin of the testimony of Friends to the plain, 179. 188.
Plainness of, a Divine requiring, 218.
Lead pencils. On the manufacture of, 347.
Learned. Where shall we find the? 192.
Leopard. Notes on the, 258.
Letter of Mary Copper, 11. 12. 46.
Charles Williams, 90. of William Mott to one under afflictions. Extracts from, 118.
of T. F. Buxton. Extracts from, 164. of Samuel Neale, 386. 395.
on the blessing of a knowledge of self, 412.
of Wm. Penn to Friends imprisoned at Aberdeen, 1676, 413.
Life among the Indians, being extracts from the Journal of Thomas C. Battey [continued from vol. xlviii. p. 411] 2. 9. 18. 25. 34. 42. 49. 62. 65. 75. 81. 89. 98. 105. 115. 122. 130. 137. 146. 154. 162. 170. 177. 185. 194. 203. 212. 218.
Livingstone's manuscript journal. Fidelity of the natives of Africa in the preservation of, 4.
Light of Christ in the soul. The doctrine of Friends in reference to, asserted, 254.
An invitation to obey the, 303.
Lions in S. Africa. Boldness of, 300.
Little things. On showing a christian spirit in, 414.
Locomotive engine. Account of the construction of the first, 141.
"Looking up." Anecdote entitled, 388.
Love. On the nature and effects of Divine, 85.

M'Kean, Judge. Anecdote of, 362.
Mails. Improvement in carrying the, within the last century, 244.
Maine. Account of the Swedish colony in, 165.
"Making a difference." Anecdote entitled, 252.
Malfeasance in office. Remarks on the alarming frequency of, in the community, 30. 111.
Mammoth cave. On the fauna of the, 397.
Marriages.—John F. Stratton to Dorothy Hobson, 56; Charles Stokes to Phebe P. Haines, 80; Louis Stokes to Elizabeth K. Roberts, 80; William C. Buzby to Lizzie E. Borton, 88; Samuel B. Redman to Florence H. Elfreth, 96; John C. Hall, M. D. to Mary H. Dutton, 96; Robert P. Thomas to Susan McGrew, 104; Samuel A. Bacon to Elizabeth Balderston, 104; Jacob Maule to Rachel Ruley, 112; Watson W. Dewees to Sarah L. Brown, 120; Samuel W. Moore to Esther Roberts, 152; James F. Wood to Mary L. Collins, 160; Edwin Thorp to Rebecca S. Walton, 176; Ellwood Tomlinson to Rebecca B. Embree, 264; Comly B. Shoemaker to Martha L. Bailey, 264; Pearson Hall to Miriam Ellyson, 272; Thomas K. Brown to Caroline Cadbury, 288; David Roberts, Jr. to Elizabeth L. Allen, 320; Chalkley Stokes to Mary J. Borton, 328; Uriah Borton to Rachel Wiggins, 328; John W. Stokes to Ann Woolman, 328.
Marriages. Remarks on the unhappy consequences of mixed, among Friends, 358.
Remarks on the benefit of, when rightly entered into, and the danger of mistakes in, 412.
Marshall Charles. A sermon preached by, in 1693, 454.
Testimony of, against undervaluing present manifestations of duty, and comments, 255.
Mechanics. Suggestions for young master, 358.
Mennonite. Remarks of a Russian, on the value of religious liberty, 107.
Mercury poisoning. A solution of ammonia, a preventive of, 20.
Meteoric iron. Account of several specimens of, from Mexico, 13.

Microscopic writing. Description of, 373.
Mining centres of Western America. On the, 221.
Mifflin Mary. Testimony of Deer Creek Monthly Meeting, 350.
Ministry. Remarks on true and false, 17. 28. 33. 237.
Observations on a hireling, 28.
Remark of John Churchman in relation to, 68.
of Christiana Hustler. Remark upon the, 69.
Remarks on the powerful influence of example in the, 124.
Observations of George Fox on the, 182.
Observations on God's ministers, and their, 258. 267.
Remarks in reference to the exercise of the, at interments, 262.
Remarks of Daniel Wheeler on the injury done to the cause of religion by the payment of money in connection with, 325.
On the necessity of keeping down to the gift, in the, 351.
Apprehensions of Stephen Grellet in reference to the effects of a forward, self-willed, among Friends, 398.
Mississippi. Accounts of the proposed improvement of the mouth of the, 77. 351.
"Modern Quakerism examined and contrasted with that of the ancient type." Notice of, and extracts from, 309. 314. 321. 331. 337. 345.
Moody and Sankey. A dissuasive to the attendance of the meetings of, by Friends, 110.
Remarks on the "revival" meetings of, 158.
Moon. On the apparent size of, at the horizon, 353.
More Hannah. Remarks of, on the love of dissipation, 29.
Morris Anthony. Brief sketch of, 156.
Mortality in different seasons. The relative, 372.
Moss. Notes on the Florida, 271.
Mound builders. Suggestions that the, were Village Indians from New Mexico, 340.
Murder. On the duty of repressing the spread of influences in the community which may excite to, 363.
Murray Lindley. Biographical notice of, 213.
Music. Animadversions of an Episcopalian on 'church,' 213.
"My flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them." Anecdote entitled, 243.

Napoleon's happiest day, 207.
Nasmyth James, the mechanic. Notice of the life of, 346.
Natural History.—The blue crane of California, 22; The tarantula, 35; Wild goats in Scotland, 36; The Suricate, 44; Sponges, 74; Sea-gulls, 183; Vultures, 220; The wild Guinea-fowl, 226; Ostriches, 246; The Euplectella, 253; The Leopard, 258; The Hippopotamus, 290; Scorpions, 290; The wattled crane, 300; Lions, 300; The spring-bok, 301; The opelet, 303; White ant, 307; Rapidity of growth of European plants and animals in America and Australia, 397; Fauna of the Mammoth cave, 397.
Neale Samuel. Extract from, 77.
Extracts from the Journal of, and comments, 323. 333. 341. 348. 354. 362. 370. 378. 386. 395. 402. 410.
New England. Notice of the persecution of Friends in, in 1658, 129.
New Guinea. Notes of a visit to, 414.
New Jersey State Reform School. Extract from the report of, 219.
New Jersey. Fragmentary history of the Indians of, 373. 377. 390. 399.
"Noah's carpenters." Anecdote entitled, 276.

Obedience to the Divine requirings. Remarks on, 27.
"Obedience to manifested duty." Essay entitled, 282.
Ocean. Results of recent explorations of the depths of the, 11.
Oil. On the cultivation of the ground-nut for, in Africa, 276.
Old Swedes' meeting-house, in Philadelphia. Description of the, 366.
Olive tree. On the, 151.
Ordeal by poison as practiced by the natives of Angola, 257.
Ostrich raising. Account of, 196.
Ostrich hunting, 246.
"Our chief time-piece losing time." Extract entitled, 273. 281. 291.

Pain. Insensibility to, of the natives of Angola, 257.
Palm wine. On, 266.
Paris. On relieving pauperism in, 91.
Parents. Desire of S. Fothergill for faithfulness in, 391.
Patience and christian trust in adversity. On, 284.
Patience. Remarks on, as a Christian virtue, 373.
Patient endurance, 364.
Peace of mind. Obedience to the visitations of the Holy Spirit the only way to, 155.
Peace of the Lord's children. Essay entitled, 347.
Pemberton John. Remarks on the excellence of silent worship by, 39.
On an experience of the apostle, 45.
Remark on degeneracy, 52.
Penington Isaac. Extract from, on the mercies of the Lord, 43.
Remarks of, on the nature and effects of Divine love, 85.
On the distinction between the faith which is of man and the faith which is of God, 215.
Testimony to the character of, 225.
Remarks by, on true ministry, 242. 263.
Some directions to the panting soul by, 250.
On the ministers and ministry of his day, 258. 267.
On the way to witness the glorious coming of the Lord, 276.
An Epistle of, to women Friends, 355.
Penn William. Remarks of, on gospel ministry, 17.
Sketch of the life and labors of, 21. 29. 38. 45. 51. 63. 69. 78. 84. 93. 97.
Extract from, on the doctrine of the light of Christ in the heart, 147.
On the origin of the plain language used by Friends, 179. 188.
Remarks of, on pride, 196.
Encouragement by, to individual faithfulness in spreading the Truth, and comments, 255.
On recreations and amusements, 298.
Letter of, to Friends at Aberdeen, 413.
Pennsylvania. Account of the early settlement of, by Friends, 78. 84.
Perils of the whaling business, 318.
Philadelphia. Statistics of the excellent sanitary condition of, 338.
Plants.—Mouse burrs, 35; Experiments on the effects of Paris-green upon peas, 38; Porcupine grass, 83; Big trees of California, 118; Vegetable ivory, 131; The olive tree, 151; The bark of the paper mulberry, the material for cloth in Fiji, 172; Large grape-vine, 190; Kangaroo vine, 260; The Baobab, 266; On swamp trees, 271; Florida moss, 271; The ground nut, 276; S. African plant used for tanning, 300; The Welwitschia, 301; The India Rubber tree, 343; Observations on the temperature at which certain seeds will germinate, 397; The Panama Hat plant, 412.
Poetry.—Original.—"Would I be young again?" 60; The law of compensation, 100; In memory of a friend, 108; Silent waiting, 108; Rainy days, 125; The Nile, 132; The vine at my window, 235; Lines in reference to "new paths," 260; The Longing soul, 276; "Is it I?" 300; The Hibiscus, 356.
Selected.—The Abiding Presence, 220; Are all the children in? 388; The Bubble, 13; Bearing the cross, 52; By and By, 92; A Better day, 115; Begin with God, 140; Be just and fear not, 164; Bear ye one another's burdens, 284; Better than gold, 341; The Christian's walk, 44; The City of the living, 172; Christmas in 1875, 188; The Cruse that faileth not, 204; Choose thou my way, 252; Coming into the shade, 356; The Desert Land, 220; Daniel, 268; Faith and works, 84; First-day thoughts, 125; The Fisher, 228; Follow thou me, 380; The Flood of Years, 396; The Golden Side, 52; Go thy way, stand in thy lot, 252; Hold-on, Hold-in, Hold-out, 20; Humility, 132; The Heavenly Sculptor, 181; Humility, 260; Heaven, 268; He giveth more grace, 308; "He shall sit as a refiner and purifier," 316; The imprisoned feather, 92; The joy of incompleteness, 412; Lines on the dealings of Providence, 28; Lines, 68. 308. 412; Little things, 284; Longing for full redemption, 333; The Mystic veil, 140; The March of Refinement, 156; "Mine hour is not yet come," 236; My ships, 292; A Morning Hymn, 348; "Not in buildings made with hands," &c., 44; Nobody's child, 68; Over and over again, 36; O, for a heart of calm repose, 116; The Pressed Gentian, 276; The Quaker of the olden time, 212; The Rainy day, 164; A Royal service, 196; Rest, 348; Satisfied, 76; Sacred silence, 244; Sonnet, 333; Set your affections on things above, 341; They that wait upon the Lord, 36; Tiny tokens, 116; 'Twill not be long, 181; Take care, 204; Tender Shepherd, 212; The Three voices, 364; Uncle Isham, 4; The Vaudois teacher, 197; The White Raiment, 20; Why He takes them, 76; Woman, 188; "We glory also in tribulation," 292; Whittier's Centennial Hymn, 364; Wherefore? 380.
Pompeii. Discovery of written tablets of accounts at, 21.
Pompeii. Account of recent excavations in, 94.
Portugal. On the present condition of agriculture 198. 206.
Postal card. Notice of an improved, 14.
Poultry. On improved breeds of, 191.
Preacher. Incident in the life of Paul Gerhardt, t banished, 203.
Price Joseph. A vessel belonging to, released by privateer, 143.
Profanity. Observation on the foolishness and wicke ness of, 164.
rebuked, 202.
Prophetic warning and its fulfilment. A, 289. 297.
Providential deliverance. Account of a, in the life John Newton, 129.
Account of, by Thomas C. Battey, 137. relief. Anecdote of, 406.
Providence. Anecdote of a "special," 287.
Prayer. On the method of attaining to true, 330. 33
Prayer and Silent worship. On, 342.
Preachers. Remarks on unguarded expressions us by, by a member of another Society, 228.
Pride. The fine feathers of, to be plucked, 327.
Pyramid. On the supposed design of the great, 142.
Determination of the age of a, 325.

"Quench not the Spirit." Incidents in the life of Jea Smith, 131.
Quiet methods of doing good, 228.

Railroad. Notice of the fiftieth anniversary of the fir steam, 141.
Rainfall on the isthmus of Panama, 140.
Proposed investigation of the decrease of the, Europe, 211.
Reflections on some of the contents of "The Friend 30.
Religion. "Eternal happiness not a cheap thing," 2
Remarks on the entire dependence of man the work of, 37.
The operations of the Lord in the heart, cor pared to those of a potter, 39.
Remarks on the work of, 43.
The consolations of, and the work of, in th heart, 70.
Remarks on a false rest in, derived from th letter of the Scriptures, 116.
On the love of Christ in adversity, 118.
Humility in the profession of, particularly neec ful at the present day, 145.
Divine grace inwardly revealed the guide i 150. 153. 163.
Remarks of Samuel Fothergill on instantaneou conversion, 212.
Morality too feeble to withstand temptation with out, 227.
On instantaneous "conversion" in, 286. 33 349.
Instance of the happy effects of, in humble lif 365.
On controversy in, 366.
On the devices of the enemy in the work of, 37
Religious consistency.—The late Yearly Meeting.— Essay entitled, 335.
"Remind me of the king." Anecdote entitled, 14.
Reproof. Remarks on the necessity of faithfulness i 141.
Retirement of soul. On the blessed effects of, 101.
Reynolds Richard. Parental love and advice of, 124.
Riches and talents. Observations on the right use o 140.
Rickman William. Testimony of, that the peculia religious sentiments of Friends will never be suffere to fall to the ground, 106.
Rigge Ambrose. The spiritual guide of life, &c., b 150. 153. 163.
Warning by, on the pursuit of riches, 221.
Rome. The ruins and remains of ancient, 201. 210.
Observations on modern, 230.
Rosetta-stone. Account of the 284.
Russia. The absence of religious toleration in, 107.

Sahara. Notice of a survey for the proposed floodin of, 404.
Salvation. The way to, 124.
Samaria. Account of a visit to the mountain of, 361.
Sand-blast. On the invention of the, 92.
School. Friends' Boarding, Barnesville, Ohio. Notic of the, 223. 239.
Extract from the report of the New Jersey Stat Reform, 219.
Schools. Extract on the advantages of Select, fo Friends' children, 142.

hool-teachers. Remarks on the need of conscientious, 207.
ientific Notes, 372. 397.
ott Job. Remarks of, on the danger of being beguiled by the enemy of souls, 167.
A danger to the church pointed out by, 340.
a. Results of dredging in the depths of the, 369.
Description by Dr. Scoresby of a storm at, 397.
Seen in the light of Christ." Remarks by Job Scott, and comments, entitled, 340.
lf-denial. On the necessity of, 74.
rmon from a pair of boots. A, 229.
rmon preached by John Vaughton in 1694, 245.
preached by Chas. Marshall in 1693, 254.
preached by Francis Camfield in 1693, 274.
ackleton Richard. Extracts from, 375.
eepfolds and shepherds' life. On, 227.
ilitoe Thomas. Account of a visit by, to the drinking houses in Dublin, 381. 385. 393. 401.
ort sketches of some of our early Friends, in which may be traced the origin of some of our testimonies, and their reasons for maintaining them, 119. 122. 133. 170. 179. 188. 196. 202. 211. 218. 225. 242. 263. 275. 292. 298. 308.
Shortness of life and the better state beyond." Essay entitled, 270.
ower of "flesh." Remarks of Dr. J. L. Smith on a recent, 253.
gns of the times in the religious world. On the, 158.
lence, a power, 46.
lver producing regions of the world. Statistics of the, 102.
lver mining in Massachusetts. Notice of, 397.
mcock John. Brief account of, 140.
mpson James. A sermon of, 14.
mplicity. The blessedness of childlike, 130.
ave. Anecdote of a self-educated, 245.
eep-potions. On the danger of the use of, 268.
mith Jean. Account of some of the religious experiences of, 131.
oul." "Some directions to the panting. Extracts from, 250.
ounds. On "mysterious," 382.
outhern States. A visit to some of the, with observations on their present condition, 236. 244. 251. 260.
peak gently, 379.
Speak evil of no man." Anecdote of Philip Henry, 399. pirit. To be of a tender, a precious state, 400.
ponges. Account of the structure and growth of, 74.
Spontaneous" combustion. Observations on the occurrence of, 370.
pring and Autumn. On the beauties of, 76.
tatistics of the consumption of alcoholic liquids in the British Isles, 60.
sanitary condition of Philadelphia, 338.
capital employed in the liquor traffic in the U. States during the last century, 367.
teamships. Remarks of J. W. Forney on the American line of, 403.
teel. The manufacture of Bessemer, at Harrisburg, Pa., 229.
On the invention of Bessemer, 335.
torms. On the phenomena of our north-east, 125.
tory Thomas. Testimony of, to the leadings of the Light of Christ, 106.
Observations of, on the necessity of a change of heart, 254.
Invitation by, to obey the light of Christ in the soul, 303.
trathmore. Account of the wreck of the, and rescue of the survivors, 298.
ufferings. Be not impatient under, 371.
ulphur. Notice of the occurrence of liquid, in Sicily, 92.
ummary of Events, 7. 15. 23. 31. 40. 47. 55. 64. 72. 80. 88. 96. 104. 112. 120. 128. 136. 144. 152. 160. 168. 176. 184. 192. 200. 208. 216. 224. 232. 240. 248. 256. 264. 271. 279. 288. 295. 304. 312. 320. 328. 336. 344. 352. 359. 368. 376. 384. 392, 400. 408. 416.
un. The distance of, by recent calculation, 84.
unstroke. On the method of treating, 387.
urgery. The triumphs of plastic, 285.
urgical operation. A remarkable, 366.
uricate. Account of a, 44.
wedish colony in Maine. Account of the, 165.

Tea. On the cultivation of, in new fields, 412.
Teachers. Remarks on the need of conscientious school, 207.
Telegraph. Notice of the quadruplex improvement in the, 43.
Telegraph. Method of transmitting messages by the ocean, 117.
Temper. Remarks on the government of the, 406.
Temptations. Advice of Joseph Pike on bearing, 192.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting of 1795, on resisting, 287.
On escaping from, 357.
Testimony to the past and present. Essay entitled, A 389.
Thoughts—Original and selected, 5. 12. 26. 43. 58. 70. 85. 99. 106. 114. 123. 129. 147. 155. 166. 173. 237.
Timely caution. A, 262.
Theatre. Advice of "The Episcopal Recorder" against the, 404.
Thrift. Illustrations of, 339. 363.
Tides. On the influence of the atmosphere upon the, 372.
Time. Advice on spending, 341.
Tobacco. Remarks of Dr. Rush on the absurdity of using, 347.
Toothache remedy. Bicarbonate of soda, a, 373.
Tornadoes. On, 405. 409.
Trees. Account of a visit to the big, of Mariposa Co., California, 118.
On some peculiarities of swamp, 271.
Troubles. Remarks on bearing, 12.
"Trust in the Lord." Essay entitled, 325.
Truth. On the knowledge of the, 396.
Tunnel under the English channel. Account of the preliminary investigations for the proposed, 174.
Discovery of a Roman, in Algiers, 263.
Turkish Revolution. On the, 354. 381.
Turtle. Account of growing the, for the New York market, 262.

Unity in the church. On, 235.
Unmarried women. On, 364.

Value of liberty in religion and the press. Remarks of a Russian Mennonite on, 107.
Vanilla. On artificial, 373.
Vatican. Account of the, 22.
"Vaudois teacher." Correspondence in reference to the authorship of the, 197.
Vaughton John. A sermon preached by, in 1694, 245.
Vegetable ivory. Notice of the plant producing, 131.
Vultures. Observations on the habits of, 220.

Waiting upon God. On, 316.
War. Remarks on horrors of, as observed in Egypt, 39.
Considerations on the demoralizing effects of, in the community, 111.
The obverse side of military glory, 143.
Sydney Smith on the horrors of, 151.
The reasons of the testimony of Friends against, 283.
Testimony of a naval officer against, 363.
Remarks on the enormous expenses of, as a preventive of, 380.
in Turkey. Observations on the, 381.
Remarks on the causes of the present Sioux, 382.
The conscription in France, 389.
Watchfulness unto prayer. Remarks of J. Yeardley upon the benefit of, 26.
On the necessity of, at the present day, 178.
Way of Life unchanged—God's ministers and their ministry." Essay entitled, "The, 258. 267.
Weather. The establishment of international reports of the, 50.
The phenomena of our north-east storms, 125.
Review of, for First month, 1876, 206. of 7th mo. 1876. Remarks on the, 391.
Wesley John. Remarks of, on being mistaken, 43.
Westtown School. Address delivered to graduates at, 270.
Weyer's Cave. Account of a visit to, 27.
Wheeler, Daniel. Remarks of, on one great obstacle to the spreading of the gospel, and comments, 155.
On the injury done to religion by the payment of money in connection with ministry, 325.
"When will the preacher begin?" Anecdote entitled, 22.
Williams Charles. Extracts from the diary of, and comments, 53. 61. 66. 82. 90. 101. 108. 134. 138. 145. 157. 161. 178. 190. 193.
Williams Hannah. Extract from, on the joining of Friends with those of other denominations in benevolent objects, 110.
Wisdom. Essay entitled, 357.
Withy George. Extract from, on the true knowledge of the benefits of Christ's death, 215.
Woman as a worker. Remarks on, 274.
Wonderful subterranean palace. A, 316.
Woolman John. Extracts from an Epistle of, to Friends, 183. 186. 195.
Extract from, on the spiritual change wrought in him, 306.
Worship. Remarks on the excellency of silent, 10.
Remarks of Mary Capper on true spiritual, 13.
Evidence of the concern of M. Bewley to attend mid-week meetings for, 28.
Advice of S. Crisp to attend mid-week meetings for, 39.
Silence a needful preparation for, 39. 285.
On the nature of true, 47.
Experience of Thos. Colley in the attendance of meetings for, 52.
Silent, a powerful testimony to others, 71.
Testimony of London Yearly Meeting, 1827, to the excellence of silent, 99.
The reading of the Holy Scriptures in meetings for, not worship, 99.
Architectural ornament in places of, an outgrowth of a sensuous religion, 103.
On true, 151.
Observations of Henry Hull on confusion and noises in meetings for, 253.
Plea for silence in meetings for, by one not a Friend, 287.
On the proper occupation of mind in meetings for, 316.
On silent, and prayer, 342.

Year. On the changing beauties of the, 76.
Yearly Meeting Indiana, 1875. Notice of the proceedings of, 71. 87.
Remarks on innovations which have taken place in, 309. 314. 321. 331. 337. 389.
London, 1875. Remarks on some of the proceedings of, 23. 36. 391.
1842. Testimony of, to plainness of speech, behavior and apparel, 26.
Comments on changes now going on in, 36.
Account of a Conference of members of, who are dissatisfied with the changes in, 404.
1805. Remark of M. Capper on religious exercise in, 54.
1827. Testimony of, to the excellence of silent worship, 99.
1692. Exhortation of, in regard to the training of youth, 125.
1792. Written Epistle of, 221.
Remarks on the recent endorsement by, of Edward Ash as a gospel minister, 268.
1831. Extract from an Epistle of, 276.
Selections from early Epistles of, 277.
1876. Notice of the proceedings of, 358.
1752. Notice of, 362.
New England. Remarks on the division in, in 1849, 127.
New York, 1876. Notice of proceedings of, 367.
Ohio, 1875. Notice of the proceedings of, 95.
Philadelphia, 1876. Account of the proceedings of, 294.
Remarks on the proceedings of, 303. 318. 319. 324. 335.
Remarks on, and the state of Society, 317. 326.
Remarks on attacks upon, on account of its efforts to maintain the testimony of Friends to plainness of dress, 407.
Yellow fever. Official report on the ignorance respecting the cause of, &c., 12.
Notice of the, in Philadelphia in 1793, 193.
Yosemite Valley. Account of a visit to the, 133. 139.
Young convinced ones. William Penn's advice to, 101.
Youth. That which is graceful in, 43.
cautioned to beware of the first steps to evil, 43.
Advice to parents on the training of, by London Yearly Meeting, 92. 125.
Advice to, on resisting temptation, 287.
A voice of entreaty and message of love to the, 293.

Zeal. Analysis of false, portrayed in a dream, 163.
Zodiacal light. Observations on the nature of the, 209. 217.
Zuyder Zee. The proposed drainage of the, 329.